

Telephone calls and faxes from unsolicited marketers is an invasion of my privacy. Even worse, since I often forward my land line to my cell phone, I sometimes end up paying for the call. This is outrageous. Individuals should not be paying for unsolicited marketing calls.